DEFENDANT'S OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

EpicRealm Licensing, LP and Parallel Networks, LLC, as the new real party in interest, hereby oppose Plaintiff QuinStreet, Inc.'s ("QuinStreet's") Motion for Leave to File Amended Complaint for Declaratory Judgment ("Motion for Leave") (D.I. 41). QuinStreet's proposed amended complaint names epicRealm Licensing, LP as the defendant. However, in August 2007, epicRealm Licensing, LP ("epicRealm") assigned to Parallel Networks, LLC ("Parallel Networks") all right, title and interest in the two patents in suit, United States Patent No. 5,894,554 (the "554 patent") and United States Patent No. 6,415,335 (the "335 patent") (collectively, the "patents in suit"), including the right to enforce the patents in suit and to recover for past infringement. (Exhibit A hereto.) Consequently, because epicRealm has no interest in the patents in suit, QuinStreet's Motion for Leave should be denied. Counsel for epicRealm has attempted to reach an agreement with QuinStreet on the appropriate procedure to substitute Parallel Networks as the correct defendant and counterclaimant in this action but has reached an impasse. Consequently, Parallel Networks will move the Court to substitute Parallel Networks as the appropriate defendant and counterclaimant.

In support of this opposition, epicRealm and Parallel Networks, as the real party in interest, state as follows:

1. On April 13, 1999, and July 2, 2002, the '554 patent and the '335 patent duly and legally issued. These two patents are directed to, among other things, systems and methods for managing dynamic Web page generation requests. QuinStreet initiated this action against epicRealm by filing its original Complaint for Declaratory Judgment seeking a declaration of noninfringement for all of its software products used in conjunction with the delivery of dynamic web pages. However, Parallel Networks now owns all right, title and interest in the patents in suit and has the right to enforce those patents with respect to QuinStreet and the right to recover for past infringement. (Parallel Networks is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Texas.) A copy of the assignment of all right, title and interest in the patents in suit to Parallel Networks has been filed with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and is attached to this opposition brief as Exhibit A. As seen in Exhibit A, epicRealm, the defendant named in QuinStreet's Motion for Leave, has no right, title or interest in the patents in suit.

2. QuinStreet's proposed amendment wrongly asserts that epicRealm "has the right to enforce the epicRealm patents against QuinStreet." (QuinStreet's Proposed Amended Complaint for Declaratory Judgment at ¶ 8.) Plainly, the actual controversy now between the parties as raised by QuinStreet is between Parallel Networks and QuinStreet, not between epicRealm and QuinStreet. In sum, because all right, title and interest in the two patents in suit is held by Parallel Networks, QuinStreet's proposed Motion for Leave to File Amended Complaint for Declaratory Judgment should be denied because Parallel Networks, LLC, not epicRealm Licensing, LP, is the proper defendant.

3. Parallel Networks does not oppose the instant motion if QuinStreet agrees to substitute Parallel Networks for epicRealm as the sole defendant. QuinStreet has rejected Parallel Networks' attempt to properly substitute the real party in interest. Consequently, Parallel Networks will promptly file an appropriate motion to substitute Parallel Networks as the real party in interest.

WHEREFORE, epicRealm and Parallel Networks, as the real party in interest, respectfully request that the Court deny QuinStreet's Motion for Leave to File its Amended Complaint for failure to name the true party in interest, Parallel Networks, LLC.
